Items Not Allowed To Be Sent Through Surplus Property

Contact Environmental Health Services at 491-6745 for questions or concerns on these items.

- Any Liquids – (Examples include: Cleaning Supplies, Aerosols, Paints, Laboratory Chemicals) (This does not include oil in engines, gas in attached tanks or unused auto lubricant in original containers)
- Characteristics of Toxic, Corrosive, Reactive or Flammable Material
- Pharmaceuticals
- Any Radioactive Material
- Any Biological Material
- Any Unknown Substance
- Refrigerant in Original Containers - (Refrigerators and freezers are discussed on the Surplus Web Site)
- Asbestos Containing Material – (Examples include: Laboratory Fume Hoods, Laboratory Gloves, Fire Blankets, Fire Curtains, Fire Doors, Older Chalkboards, Some Tabletops, Suspect Mechanical Components)
- Lead Painted Materials for Salvage
- Equipment Containing Mercury Switches - (See Surplus Website for Specific items such as Old Computer Screens)
- Any Pressurized Container
- Any Medical or Laboratory Sharps